Legend:
- $\geq$: greater than or equal to
- $\leq$: less than or equal to

Notes:
1. "term" refers to fall or spring except in the case of "first term back" from suspension, which also includes summer and winter.
2. A summer or winter term GPA changes probationary academic status only if it returns a student to Good Standing.
3. A student can take no more than 16 credits during a fall or spring term on probation or just returning from suspension.
4. A student with term GPA $< 2.0$ and overall GPA $\geq 2.0$ is placed on Academic Warning without note on the transcript. (Transcript shows Good Standing.)
